

Intellectual Property and Tech Transactions Update - December 2019

December 17, 2019 | Client Update

In this issue, we discuss IP-related cases before the Supreme Court this term, the European Commission's annual review of the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield, and the passage of the New York SHIELD Act.

Davis Polk's Intellectual Property and Technology Transactions Group advises clients on corporate and commercial transactions involving IP, technology, data privacy and cybersecurity matters. Our IP litigation practice is composed of trial lawyers with extensive experience handling intellectual property cases in courtrooms throughout the U.S.

Read the Full Newsletter >