

Intellectual Property and Tech Transactions Update - July 2019

July 22, 2019 | Client Update

Below is a link to our latest report on developments in IP, data privacy and cybersecurity law. In this issue, we discuss a variety of the Supreme Court's recent IP-related decisions and the European Parliament's adoption of a new directive on copyrights in the digital market.

Davis Polk's Intellectual Property and Technology Transactions Group advises clients on corporate and commercial transactions involving IP, technology, data privacy and cybersecurity matters. Our IP litigation practice is composed of trial lawyers with extensive experience handling intellectual property cases in courtrooms throughout the U.S.
